Brianna A. Means is an Associate in the San Diego Office of Manning Kass. She is a member of the Catastrophic Liability Defense, Insurance Coverage / Bad Faith, Landlord / Tenant / Habitability, and Premises Liability teams.

Brianna's practice focuses on civil litigation and insurance defense matters. She has represented clients in a wide range of disputes, and her experience includes managing cases through all stages of litigation, including early case assessment, written discovery, depositions, motion practice, mediation, settlement negotiations, and trial preparation.

Brianna has developed a strategic approach, strong advocacy, and the ability to efficiently manage litigation matters while maintaining a practical, client-focused perspective. She is committed to delivering effective legal solutions and strong results for her clients.

Brianna earned her Juris Doctor from Loyola Law School, Los Angeles, and is admitted to practice law in the State of California.

Outside of work, Brianna enjoys traveling, discovering new restaurants, and making memories with her family and friends, including her golden retriever/fur baby, Rylee.
