

contact@manningkass.com

 (213) 624-6900

Christopher A. Kanjo is a Partner the Los Angeles office of Manning Kass. He is a member of the Sports, Recreation, and Attractions Law and the Professional Liability team.

Mr. Kanjo has extensive experience in several areas of law, including professional liability, premises liability, products liability, construction, employment, general business litigation, and insurance. He handles matters including attorney, real estate, and insurance agent malpractice claims.

Mr. Kanjo holds his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from the University of California, Riverside and his Juris Doctor from the University of Southern California.

Mr. Kanjo is an American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA) member who has extensive trial experience in multiple types of litigation. In addition, he served as vice president of legal affairs for a start-up technology company, and as director of business development for an online business magazine. In his spare time, Mr. Kanjo enjoys being with his family, reading, cooking, cycling, and an occasional round of golf.

Practice Areas

- Professional Liability
- Sports, Recreation, and Attractions Law

Memberships

- American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA)

Admission

- California

Education

- University of Southern California, Juris Doctor

— University of California, Riverside, Bachelor of Arts in Political Science