

contact@manningkass.com

 (213) 624-6900

Kayleigh Andersen is a Partner in the Los Angeles office of Manning Kass. She is a member of the Governmental Entity Liability team.

As an attorney, she has years of experience representing government entities and members of law enforcement in both state and federal court. Ms. Andersen has extensive experience dealing with high-profile cases, including allegations of wrongful death, excessive force, dangerous condition of public property, medical malpractice, as well as a variety of other matters on behalf of public entities and their employees.

Ms. Andersen graduated with honors from the University of California, Los Angeles. Ms. Andersen went on to receive her Juris Doctor from the University of Southern California Gould School of Law. In addition to her work in civil litigation, she interned with both the Los Angeles County District Attorney's office and the San Diego County District Attorney's office.

Ms. Andersen is a member of the California State Bar and is also admitted to the Bar of the United States District Court for the Central District of California and the Eastern District of California.

Practice Area

- Governmental Entity Liability

Admission

- California

Courts

- United States District Court for the Central District of California

— United States District Court for the Eastern District of California

Education

— University of Southern California Gould School of Law, Juris Doctor

— University of California, Los Angeles, Bachelor of Arts, Honors