

contact@manningkass.com

 (619) 515-0269

Lacey N. Sipse is an Associate in the San Diego office of Manning Kass. She is a member of the Appellate Law (Strategy, Writs, and Appeals) team.

Ms. Sipse graduated with honors from the University of Southern Mississippi with a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology and a minor in Chemistry. Ms. Sipse graduated magna cum laude from the University of Mississippi School of Law, affectionately called Ole Miss. While in law school, Ms. Sipse was an Associate Editor of the Mississippi Law Journal. Her journal article Inducing Congress to Create Separate Patent Infringement Categories: A Solution to Multiple Actor Liability Evasion was published in the 85th Volume of the Mississippi Law Journal in 2016.

After graduating from law school, Ms. Sipse moved to San Diego and made it her home. She began volunteering with immigrants' rights groups and practicing immigration law. During her immigration practice, she handled multiple appellate cases before both the Board of Immigration Appeals and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. Having an interest in civil litigation, Ms. Sipse began to focus her skills on business litigation, including breach of contract/contract disputes, fraud, securities litigation, director and officer liability, and shareholder disputes.

Practice Area

- Appellate Law (Strategy, Writs, & Appeals)

Admissions

- California
- Mississippi

Courts

- United States Court of Appeals for the 9th Circuit
- United States District Court for the Southern District of California

Education

- University of Mississippi School of Law, Juris Doctor, magna cum laude
  - Associate Editor, Mississippi Law Journal
- University of Southern Mississippi, Bachelor of Science in Biology with a minor in Chemistry