

Lina.Hung@manningkass.com

☎ (213) 624-6900

Lina Hung is an Associate in the Los Angeles office of Manning Kass. She is a member of the Appellate Law (Strategy, Writs, & Appeals) team.

Ms. Hung received her Bachelor of Arts from the University of California, Santa Barbara, and her Juris Doctor from the University of California, Davis. At the University of California, Davis, Ms. Hung was Editor in Chief of the Social Justice Law Review and served on the board of other student organizations, such as If-When-How, a group promoting reproductive justice. Ms. Hung was a clerk at the Neighborhood Legal Association of Los Angeles, where she provided immigration services to indigent clients.

Before joining the firm, Ms. Hung worked as a mediation specialist and litigation associate in firms in Los Angeles County, where she gained experience in areas such as business litigation, insurance defense, personal injury, and employment law.

Practice Area

- Appellate Law (Strategy, Writs, & Appeals)

Admission

- California

Education

- University of California, Davis, Juris Doctor
- University of California, Santa Barbara, Bachelor of Arts in English Literature and Japanese Literature