Lynn L. Carpenter is a Partner in the Los Angeles office of Manning Kass. She is a member of the Governmental Entity Liability team.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Carpenter was an assistant district attorney in Payne County, Oklahoma where her work as lead or co-counsel resulted in the successful prosecution of complex felony assault trials including child abuse, sexual assault, and domestic violence. As an assistant district attorney, Ms. Carpenter developed special training protocols in conjunction with law enforcement professionals for evidence gathering and trial preparation. As an ardent advocate of victim's rights, Ms. Carpenter was keenly responsive to victims who were in the unfamiliar, and often hostile, courtroom environment. As a standout for victim's advocacy, she was awarded the Be The One Award for child abuse prosecution in 2015.

Ms. Carpenter earned a Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Arts from Langston University and a Juris Doctor from the University of Tulsa College of Law. During her tenure in law school, Ms. Carpenter received the CALI Excellence for the Future Award® in trial practice, evidence presentation, state administrative law, and legal reasoning, analysis, and writing.

Ms. Carpenter is admitted to practice law in California, Oklahoma, and the United States Central District of California.
