

contact@manningkass.com

 (213) 624-6900

Mark M. Senior is a Partner in the Los Angeles office of Manning Kass. He is a member of the Catastrophic Liability Defense and Trucking and Transportation teams.

Mr. Senior is a highly experienced litigator with over thirty years of experience, including his time as a member of Farmers Insurance Exchange's SAE unit where his responsibilities included managing outside counsel retained to defend the various Farmers entities in bad faith suits throughout the country. He specializes in insurance coverage and insurance litigation and has handled a broad variety of cases including product liability, medical malpractice, uninsured motorist, premises liability, and wrongful death.

Mr. Senior received his undergraduate degree from Trinity University in San Antonio, Texas, and his Juris Doctorate from Southwestern University School of Law in Los Angeles. In addition to his litigation background, Mr. Senior also has litigation management experience. He is admitted in both California and Colorado.

Practice Areas

- Catastrophic Liability Defense
- Trucking and Transportation

Admissions

- California
- Colorado

Education

- Southwestern University School of Law, Juris Doctor
- Trinity University, Bachelor's Degree