

Michael.Larin@manningkass.com

 (213) 624-6900

Michael Larin is a Partner at the Los Angeles office at Manning Kass. He is a member of the Catastrophic Liability Defense, Class Action and Mass Torts Defense, Construction Defect, Insurance Coverage / Bad Faith, Landlord / Tenant / Habitability, Premises Liability, and Trucking and Transportation teams.

Mr. Larin has been practicing law in California for forty-eight years. He has a broad range of experience in general liability and commercial litigation, including but not limited to premises liability, construction injury, construction defect, construction delay, contractor claims, product liability, auto and trucking, and business disputes. In addition, he has tried cases involving real estate errors and omissions and legal malpractice; he has served as a trial expert in legal malpractice. He is an insurance coverage expert, regularly lecturing on a variety of coverage issues.

Mr. Larin also has served as a Judge Pro Tem for the Los Angeles County courts, and is an active mediator.

Practice Areas

- Catastrophic Liability Defense
- Class Action and Mass Torts Defense
- Construction Defect
- Insurance Coverage / Bad Faith
- Landlord / Tenant / Habitability
- Premises Liability

Admission

- California

Education

- Southwestern School of Law, Juris Doctor

