Nathalie C. Hackett is a Partner in the New York office of Manning Kass. She is a member of the Construction Defect, Insurance Coverage / Bad Faith, Premises Liability, Product Liability, Professional Liability, and Subrogation and Recovery teams.

Ms. Hackett is a highly qualified litigator with extensive experience in personal injury defense and subrogation of high-exposure property damage claims. Her superior legal skills and pragmatic litigation approach have resulted in numerous successful resolutions and seven-figure recoveries through judgment, ADR, and settlement negotiations.

Ms. Hackett has also served in various roles within the insurance industry, including claims, coverage, subrogation and recovery, and Office of the General Counsel. Her legal knowledge and attention to detail have helped her to form strong working relationships with her clients, and her ability to consistently deliver positive outcomes has earned her a reputation as a well-respected legal professional.

Ms. Hackett received her Juris Doctor from Widener University School of Law, her Master of Laws in Trial Advocacy from Temple University Beasley School of Law, her Master of Business Administration with a concentration in Entrepreneurship and Innovation Management from Drexel University LeBow College of Business, and her Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a concentration in Finance from Monmouth University.

Ms. Hackett is admitted to the United States Supreme Court, the State Bars of New York, the District of Columbia, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and the United States District Courts for the Southern District of New York, Eastern District of New York, and the District of New Jersey.
