

contact@manningkass.com

 (213) 624-6900

Petya I. Hrabar is an Associate in the Los Angeles office of Manning Kass. She is a member of the Business Litigation, Construction Defect, Corporate and Commercial Transactions, Special Investigations Unit / Insurance Fraud Litigation, and Trucking and Transportation teams.

Ms Hrabar focuses on affirmative litigation cases involving insurance fraud, and first- and third-party special investigation defense. She has over 10 years of experience as a European Licensed Attorney. Prior to joining Manning Kass, she practiced in various litigation areas of law, including but not limited to business litigation, corporate and commercial transactions, construction law matters and litigation, trucking and transportation litigation.

Ms. Hrabar was a judicial extern in the United States District Court for the Central District of California for the Honorable Dolly M Gee. She also worked as a law clerk at Liang Ly, LLP, a boutique litigation law firm based in Los Angeles.

Ms. Hrabar is fluent in English and Bulgarian.

Practice Areas

- Business Litigation
- Construction Defect
- Corporate and Commercial Transactions
- Special Investigations Unit / Insurance Fraud Litigation
- Trucking and Transportation

Memberships

- Member, Los Angeles County Bar Association
- Member, Women Lawyers Association of Los Angeles

Admission

- California

Education

- Loyola Law School, Master of Laws, International Business Transactions and Litigation and Intellectual Property
- University of Lorraine, Specialization in European Union Law, International Law and Legal Studies
- Sofia University, Master's Degree, Master of European Union Laws
- University of National and World Economy, Juris Doctor