

Safi.Henson@ManningKass.com

 (415) 217-6990

Safi Henson is an Associate in the San Francisco Office of Manning Kass. She is a member of the Appellate Law (Strategy, Writs, & Appeals) team.

Ms. Henson is a double aggie, having received her Bachelor of Arts from the University of California, Davis and her Juris Doctor from the University of California, Davis School of Law. While at the University of California, Davis School of Law, Ms. Henson was a below-lined Editor for the Business Law Journal and specialized in intellectual property, earning an Intellectual Property Certificate in tandem with her Juris Doctor degree.

Before joining the firm, Ms. Henson practiced as a litigator, law and motion associate, and legal research attorney. Since the beginning of her legal career, Ms. Henson has served as the singular or primary brief writer on all her teams. Ms. Henson has experience in several practice areas such as public entity liability, employment, premises liability, and insurance defense.

Practice Area

- Appellate Law (Strategy, Writs, & Appeals)

Admission

- California

Courts

- United States District Court for the Eastern District of California
- United States District Court for the Northern District of California

Education

- University of California, Davis School of Law Juris Doctor;
- University of California, Davis, Bachelor of Arts in English with a concentration in Critical Theory

— Contra Costa College, Associates of Arts with an emphasis in Math and Science